Dear Judi,

I have the great pleasure to inform you that you have been chosen by the WAPC Board of Directors to be the 2009 inductee into the WAPC Hall of Fame!

As you know, WAPC began this award in 2008 and our first inductee was Wade Britzius, who successfully led Trempealeau County Community Television for nearly 30 years prior to his retirement last year.

This year, WAPC has chosen to acknowledge you for your founding work in the City of Janesville, your skillful advocacy for PEG at the state level when PEG was on the line, your five years of outstanding service to the WAPC Board of Directors, your leadership as Vice-President, and your impeccable management of our Spring Conference year after year after year.

At a time when we recognize our friends outside the organization for their strong efforts on behalf of PEG when it was most threatened, it is fitting that we acknowledge one of our own and the key role you played at the state level to ensure PEG would survive to thrive.

I know I speak for everyone -- all your many friends in this organization who have had the pleasure to work with you and to seek your advice -- when I say we have been enriched by your professionalism, your ability to educate, and your friendship.

Congratulations.

Mary Cardona
